This spare volume touched my heart. Cameron Hendren's writing displays courage, honesty, integrity, and depth. He writes with wisdom beyond his years. The collection has pearls freely scattered throughout. I read the book once, twice. I am eager to read it again. Taking the writer's youth into account, I would encourage Cameron Hendren to write more, more, and more. He has found his gift early in life. I pray he develops his skills, takes wings, and flies. I recommend this book as the best thing you can buy for yourself this week.

I would recommend this book for young and old alike. Cameron is a gifted teen, wise beyond his years! Not only adults suffer from anxiety. Our teens often struggle with this. His poetry and thoughts will be a comfort and help to all.

Awesome young writer. He is very deep, soul searching, sometimes raw, always honest. I felt like I could see into his soul.

This book is an insightful reflection of the cacaphony in a teenager's world. His strong spiritual beliefs and the love and support of his family are evident. Cameron's degree of wisdom and insight at this age are remarkable. This book will help others to find their way.

I am honored to be the first to write a review for Cameron. For such a young man, Cameron has a rich insight to human emotions. He writes his deepest feelings of despair, but balances them with feelings of joy which are influenced by his family. This book is amazing and I will read it over many times. This book gives a picture of the pain and triumph of a teenager in the 21st century. It may help a parent have a better understanding of their teenager child.

I've never read a book that truly inspired me. This book touched home. It was exactly what I needed to hear. We don't often think about our routine and our untouched plans. This book wasn't what I was thought in the best of ways.

10/10 read it. Or stay a loser the rest of your life.
