Customer Reviews

Grade 3-6-- A nice blend of athletic accomplishments and personal insight into hockey's latest phenom. While most of the text is devoted to the St. Louis Blues player's uncanny scoring ability and other skills, readers are also accorded a glimpse of his personal life; rocky moments are given their due. Still, the major focus is his hockey career. Standard black-and-white photographs appear throughout; appended charts provide Hull's college and pro statistics but not his minor league totals. As a whole, this is an above-average effort in the genre of children's sports biographies. --Tom S. Hurlburt, La Crosse Pub . Lib . , WI
