Better than her father!

This book gave me several new places to eat in Santa Fe

I love your book. I am from NM and love the food from there. Happy you are sharing it with the world! Thank you.

This is a wonderful collection of some of the best recipes from Santa Fe, NM restaurants written by one of my favorite foodies. This is not just another litany of green chile dishes, but a literary tour of the culinary side of Santa Fe. I recommend you enjoy it with a lovely bottle of wine.

I did not realize that it was right here in Tucson however I was pleased that it was close and I could purchase it.

If you truly love New Mexican food (not to be confused with Mexican) it is a great book with some really good recipes. I just wish Hatch chilies were available on the east coast!

This is basically a vanity work that's the result of collating some favorite recipes from area restaurants. It would have benefited from some aggressive proof reading of the recipes.

anne hillerman is one of a kind; awesome when it comes to reviewing eateries in santa fe and surrounding. a must read.
