Customer Reviews

Everyone has their own preference for guidebooks. I like the organization of Lonely Planet better when planning what to do each day. Restaurants, hotels, and sites are all on the same map or at least together. That part is better than Rick Steves' book. Rick Steven book is better in bringing Italy alive and preparing you mentally for the trip. So both helped but for essentials and no nonsense, I like LP better.

best of the italian guideslots of information on numbers etc you will need to call to get museum tickets, train tickets etc

Just got back from Italy, and we found this book to be incredibly useful for planning our trip. Highly recommended.

Gave this book to friends traveling to Italy this month. They were very appreciative. Although I didn't have time to look through it - it appeared to be easy to navigate and presented valuable information for their trip. They seemed very blessed to receive it :) safe travels!

This book was very helpful and includes a pull-out map!
