Out Of Control (Adventures In Odyssey)

Synopsis

Stand by for chaos! Connie and the gang think they're doing another safe, scripted BTV program. But that's before the fire, the okra incident, and the renegade nose. Meanwhile, Liz's brother Mark just got engaged. How's she supposed to fit in now that she's second fiddle? Missing families, missing identities, and missing the point all figure prominently in the 40th installment of Adventures in Odyssey. Through the usual sticky situations, your whole family will learn the importance of teamwork, grace, unselfishness, and discovering God's will. Volume 40 contains the following stories (and themes): For the Fun of It (growing up too fast) Room Enough for Two (feeling replaced) BTV: Behind the Scenes (unity) Bassett Hounds (grace) It's All about Me (credit) The Case of the Disappearing Hortons (accepting help from others) The Defining Moment (being part of a team) Mystery at Tin Flat (fitting in) All Things to All People (evangelism) Here Today, Gone Tomorrow? 1, 2, & 3 (determining God's will)

I love listening to Adventures in Odyssey with my children. The stories capture the interest of my younger and older children and have given us many hours of memories together. Kids of all ages have such a variety of different questions after each one and, while they have their favorites, they seem to never get tired of the stories delivered in dramatic theatre. I highly enjoy the stories myself, but get so much more out of being there to witness my children getting so much out of real life situations wrapped snugly in Bible lessons with solid moral lessons that they recall throughout the day.

Excellent, as expected with AIO!

liked the product and received in timely manner

I think we all can relate to whatever degree to Wooton's adventure in "Bassett Hounds" and his quirkey relatives. Over all this is a worry free Album with very little or *no scariness.

Every night my grandchildren listen to the Odyssey series before bed and sleep with sweet dreams and I know they are litening to worthwhile stoies with a message.

Ok, I confess. I've been listening to Adventures in Odyssey since its very first broadcast. I was in the target age range at the time, but I still love the show. With the Novacom story behind them, the show serves up fun and funny shows focusing mostly on the kids and families around town. "For the Fun of it" opens the album and finds Wooton playing host to his overly mature and well bred niece, with surprising results. "Room Enough for Two" brings a surprise to Liz and her family when brother Mark shows up for a trip home from the Army with his fiancee. "BTV: Behind the Scenes" finds disorder and disharmony on the set of the latest BTV episode, ironically enough about unity. "Bassett Hounds" takes Wooton and Bernard to Alaska and a Bassett family reunion as Wooton's Grandpa plans to pass out his wealth."It's All About Me" features dual plots. In the first, Connie is upset when Mitch gets the credit for the advice she is feeding him on his new KYDS radio show. Meanwhile, Jared DeWhite is upset when his brother gets credit for his joke on Rodney Rathbone. When Liz and her family disappear, it's up to Mandy, Jared, and a few new friends to solve "The Case of the Disappearing Hortons." (Have I mentioned it's wonderful to have Jared back in Odyssey?) In "The Defining Moment," Marvin must deal with his sports abilities, or lack thereof. A free vacation sounds wonderful to the Washington family, until they get embroiled in the "Mystery at Tin Flat." Aubrey takes a lesson in sharing her faith from Seth in "All Things to All People." But is this really the best method of evangelism? Finally, the three part "Here Today, Gone Tomorrow?" finds Mitch tracking down the person who stole Whit's identity and framed Mitch for it. Meanwhile, he finally has to make a decision about joining the FBI. What will he do and what will it mean for his relationship with Connie? With some drama and comedy mixed in, there's something for everyone here. There were even a few episodes where they surprised me with the ending. Any fan of Odyssey will love this collection of great radio drama.

With that spooky Novacom saga over with Odyssey brings yet another wonderful album. Here are some of my favorite episodes from 40. Basset hounds, B-TV behind the scenes, Its all about me,. This is a Great wholesome Audio series And a great album from it. its great you should get it. God bless Adventures in Odyssey!!!
