

Texas Size Faith

Synopsis

As a young cowboy grows into his identity he struggles with what his heart desires and what he portrays on the outside. Through a series of comical incidences the boy discovers that his faith in what God has created him to be allows him to explore many desires of his heart as long as he keeps his TEXAS size faith in The Lord. Tucker, the young cowboy, truly depicts what it means to have a "childlike faith," as he makes the connection that God's desires for our lives are BIG...Bigger than Texas!

How sweet this story is about a young cowboy who loves his life on their ranch and yet he is wanting to "become that awesome cowboy that he so desires someday"! The story unfolds of how he searches for it through his faith that he was taught by his mother and daddy on their ranch. Cute,entertaining with great illustrations and sometimes funny. Its sure to keep the young grandchildren's attention and for them to experience Tucker's search for his "Texas Size Faith". A great children's inspirational book!

This is an amazing sweet story! My children were captivated by the funny incidences and fun cowboy flair. The lesson with in is awesome! Such a great book for kids young and old!

A very sweet story written by an AMAZING woman! Tucker will capture your heart in his journey on becoming a REAL cowboy!
