Customer Reviews

"This adult coloring book portrays the little annoyances in life: the empty ice cube tray, a lost contact lens, furniture assembly, stepping on LEGO bricks with bare feet, even a group of grumpy adults sitting around coloring fancy coloring books. Overall the drawings aren't as complex to color as many adult coloring books I've seen, but they're definitely the funniest."-GeekDad
"this book will help you reflect on the annoyances of life and teach you not to stress the small stuff"-Sweety High

Purchased for a White Elephant gift exchange and paired with with some mini liquor bottles and colored pencils.

This coloring book is hilarious and so easy to relate to -- if you're looking to practice mindfulness through art, this is the route to go. I'd recommend buying this as a surprise gift for any friend going through a tough time in their lives, whether the birth of a new baby, financial troubles, or just as a unique present.

Bought one for myself and then bought two more for gifts. So fun and funny!

Love it!!!

Very cute, and easy to do while watching TV. Just the right size too!

Given as a gift and receiver loved it.

I was so curious to receive this from the publisher as I was curious if what I thought were annoying things would be the same as other people. In fact, many of them are.. from empty ice cube trays, cats laying on your work, squeaky shoes, broken copiers.. lots of fun things to color in to relieve stress in your day. This would be fun for yourself or for a gift for someone. Pages are double sided and the paper is nice quality and works for gel pens, non-bleeding markers and pencils. Test any coloring material you are not sure about on a back page before running your pictures. This is professionally published by Chronicle books so the binding paper and quality are all excellent.

This book captures the silly little things that I thought bugged only me, from crawling around blind looking for a contact to dislodging the perfect fruit pyramid at the store. Perfect therapy for a blue day.
