Delilah and Cade are best friends and play video games together. When Delilah goes over to Cade’s house one day, she sees Lacy kissing Cade! Delilah is devastated and now realizes how big her crush is on Cade. Delilah tells her friends Nicole, Sara, and Kayla, about the incident and they recommend getting a fake boyfriend, just like Sara did, to make Cade jealous. So now Sara has to ask Dane if he can be Delilah’s fake boyfriend. The problem is: Sara blushes and her heart beats really fast whenever she’s around Dane and on top of it all, her boyfriend Paul is not hanging around her as much. Will Cade ever become Delilah’s boyfriend and will Sara be able to control her pounding heart around Dane?In this story you got to see 3 characters point of views, Delilah’s, Sara’s, and Dane’s. Dane is a winner. He’s a sweet guy who hates to see a girl upset (especially one in particular). Delilah (what a pretty name) had her heart broken and was embarrassed so much she couldn’t take it no more. Sara was confused and didn’t know what to do with her pounding heart. I really liked what Summer did and how Dane cared for everyone! The ending was really great!Overall, the book was short, sweet, and full of action.P.S. If you haven’t read Fake Boyfriend Wars, I recommend you read that story first and then this one so you can get a full background of what is happening. This book however can be read without Fake Boyfriend Wars.

This book is really good. I finished it in a day I like the name Delilah. I wish Dane and Delilah had stayed together be cause it would have been so cute. Melanie please make more books.
