Customer Reviews

Gooseberry Patch was started in 1984 one day over the backyard fence in Delaware, Ohio, by two women, Vickie Hutchins and Jo Ann Martin. They were next-door neighbors who shared a love of collecting antiques, gardening, and country decorating. Though neither of them had any experience (Jo Ann was a first-grade school teacher and Vickie, a flight attendant and legal secretary), they decided to try their hands at the mail-order business. Since they both had young children, this was perfect for them. They could work from their kitchen tables and keep an eye on the kids, too! As the children grew, so did their "little" business. They now have their own building in the country, filled to the brim with kitchenware, gourmet goodies, enamelware, bowls and their own very successful line of cookbooks, and calendars.

Very cute calendar/planner. I love the Gooseberry Patch artwork. Nicely done.

I love the Gooseberry Patch appointment calendar. I use it to keep track of my budget, among other things, and the cute illustrations make it feel like fun. I buy this every year.

I have used this Gooseberry Patch Appointment Calendar for years since I have been at home disabled the daily slot is big enough to track my doctor appointments and other important items. But they are small enough to store past years in a drawer for handy reference.

Love these calendars!

Love these calendars. I use them every year, but get them early because the price goes up.

Wonderful to keep track of appointments and bills that are due. Cheerful and colorful graphics with large spaces for each day to write comments.

This is the appointment calendar I purchase every year. It has a month calendar, followed by a week on each page. Perfect for making notes.

I love this desk appointment book I order every year most often it sells out before the year begins
