Customer Reviews

Read NEVERSTOP about a couple months ago and the fact that I have been able to remember and even reinforce some of the principles highlighted in this book to my everyday life, definitely deserves a review. I find this book to be privy to his personal life, thought process, eunoia, and shares credible principles of success. The author writes as if he is speaking to you in discussion. All 12 Principles resonate within, in one form or another. Growth of Vision and Principle 11 are my personal favorites. I enjoyed the fun facts and exercises included. Big thumbs-up for dedicating all profits from the sales of this book to helping the young children! Great first-published book.
