Customer Reviews

I have enjoyed the Malice series and now K'AM has a new protagonist of morally questionable values. A modern Irene Adler or Modesty Blaise. To tell you the truth, I was hesitant about finally reading this book. As a seemingly side character in the Malice series, Simone seemed to me to be of only passing interest. However, within a few pages of beginning "Thief of Snake Island", I became enchanted with K'Am's clever plotting and how she revealed Simone's character as a truly complex personality. Who had labored and fought as necessary to create a better life for herself. And for all us Alice fans there is very interesting background material of the years the two women spent together as students and how their lasting friendship evolved. There is a previous ebook to the "Thief" series, that I will have to acquire and I look forward to those that will follow out of K'Anne Meinal's artistic imagineering.
