"As soaked in the vitality of Greek life as it is in the detail" - The Sunday Times"

Dana Facaros and Michael Pauls are passionate about Europe and have written over 40 books for Cadogan. They have lived all over Europe, but are currently settled in an idyllic farmhouse surrounded by vineyards in the Lot Valley, France.

I loved the back stories that accompany the site descriptions, but could not give it five stars as they indicated there was no need to write about a large portion of the Peloponnesian coast that I was traveling - and yet there were underwater Roman ruins and Frankish archeological castle ruins - and much more. Five stars when they include these areas with back stories.

Tons of information and detail. Maybe could have used more photos -- but this is a wonderful resource which we will take when we head to the Peloponnese next month!
