As a homeschooling mom, I found the devotional to be relevant and refreshing! Each devotional provided insight from God's Word in tackling all of the challenges that come with the blessing of being a homeschool mom. I would highly recommend this devotional and would encourage homeschool mom groups to use it as a study guide in ministering, supporting, and encouraging each other.

Tina has a way of speaking truth in a humbling, grace-filled way! As a homeschool mother myself (off and on for 23 years) boundaries, self-control and just learning to be "with" my children are necessary. I find that each devotional can be read daily. I love the way the quotes, scripture meditations, and prayers blend so well together. Also, I have known Tina personally for about 7 years she is truly a gifted writer. But even more than being a good writer she is a servant of the Lord! She isn't perfect as she would be quick to tell you, but she is authentic, she loves her children and loves Jesus! What she writes is from personal experience and time with the Lord. I know that you will be truly blessed when you read her book. I have read it twice - beginning to end. I use it now each morning as a daily reminder to stay grounded in the word as a Homeschooler and a mommy! Honestly even if your not a "Homeschooler" this book is for you, your a mom and you teach them everyday!

A needed encouragement for each day! Loved the daily quotes from various sources. Each devotion was heartfelt and encouraging. A must for every homeschool mom. I used this as our homeschool community devotional. Each week homeschool moms would tell me how the daily word spoke to them. I would recommend this book to any homeschool parent. I chose 5 stars because it was quick and pertinent to each day.

This is great for those who don't like to read too much. I was able to finish it in one sitting, which was sort of besides the point of this book, I think.

She definitely wrote my book! I loved the daily encouragement and to know she deals with much of the things I deal with. The only reason I did not rate this book 5 star is because I found several mistakes throughout the book and looks like it needed an editor. Otherwise, I thoroughly enjoyed this fabulous book!

Tina hands us homeschool moms hope and grace with this collection of heart-felt devotions. Tackling issues we all face--like control, self-image, boundaries, and fear--she gives honest advice and spiritual perspective. These are the quick, clear messages we can grab hold of and meditate on all day.

Many times the devotion that I read was something that I have been thinking about or struggle with. So wonderful to receive encouragement specific to being a homeschool mom right where I needed it and in nice size doses.

This is such a helpful reminder of what really matters in our homeschool journey! It is real and relevant to what we face everyday. I highly recommend it.
