Revenge Of The Scorpion King (Underworlds, Book 3)

Synopsis

An action-packed mythology series from master storyteller Tony Abbott! The underworlds are rising -- and no one is safe. Loki is waging war, and Pinewood Bluffs is about to become his battlefield. Owen, Dana, Jon, and Sydney know they have to stop him. They'll do whatever it takes. But when they stow away in Loki's sledge and emerge in a new, mysterious underworld they know nothing about, things get complicated. The Babylonian underworld is dark as night and full of vicious monsters, including the dreaded Scorpion King. Will Owen and his friends ever make it back to Pinewood Bluffs?

My son loved this book series. Book was in excellent condition.

Given that this was written for a fourth grader I have to say that it accomplished its goal. My son enjoyed the story line immensely. Enjoyed the characters and mythological details.

Good book!

I got the last three books in this series for my son. He had gotten the first book from the PTO at school and devoured it within one day. Since we always encourage reading... It was a no brainer to get these! He loved them, it kept his attention, and got him talking about everything from Greek mythology to mythical monsters. Very cool!

I liked this book because of the characters and the setting the scorpion king was my fourth favorite next is Panu and then Dana my first favorite is the main character I forgot his name already!

My daughter loves this book

My son has loved reading this series. He read the first two quicker than expected and then we had to get the next two. He has taken a quick interest in them and loves to tell us about the story. Easy read for a 2nd grader.

We're having one of these years at school where all this wild fantasy stuff is popular. It's a hit in 3rd grade! Good for boys and girls.
