This book offers a wonderful introduction to the lessons of the Old Testament. It avoids missing the forest for the trees, while still giving specific biblical stories, and it never loses sight of the Old Testament's relevance to the modern world. The book takes a semi-chronological look at the books of the Old Testament, highlighting stories and lessons of particular interest. A wonderful way to come to the Bible for the first time, or to gain a greater understanding of it.

This book Rocks, it tells the story of my man Jesus and his wonderful travels it is A+ man I read it in school and it is really good book, a must read for all you religious buffs out there. Wonderfully written.

Um. Yeah. I felt totally tripped with this book, like you know that feeling? Like...feeling in TUNE With those dead peots prophets puppets and kings. But, I wish the topic of exorcism were covered more deeply, because I felt like my pagan heritage was insulted by this conglomeration of falsities in the christian religion! Satan is NOT EVIL!! SATAN IS NOT EVIL!!! but..... McDonalds is. Thank you and may the pentogram be in your dreams.with h8,-George Bulls

This book is the best kept secret. Mr. Jarvis really knows what he is doing. Keep up the great job Frank!
