Years ago, a friend of mine was actually cured of Hep C after going to a Chinese herbalist, so I wanted to see exactly what they use. This book does not disappoint. I felt I came away with a much greater understanding of both the disease and the approaches used for it. Since I know that Chinese healing methods are mostly holistic, which is, strengthen the body to fight infections vs directly attack the infection with a cure, it may help people regardless of conventional treatment. I bought it used, so my copy was a bit beat up, but that's no big deal. It's great for a bookshelf, and helpful if you know anyone with Hep C who may want an alternative cure or supplement.

excellent info but I need to know where to get the products he recommends most have been discontinued or he has changed the names. The website is very not helpful The best product I found is the Herb Som for sleep I could use a website for more info on the various formulas. The ones in the book are not readily available.

After reading this book I visited Dr. Zhang at his clinic in NYC and have been following his protocol for 3 years. I have had HCV for 35 years and only realized and began treating it in these last few years. I order herbs from Dr. Zhang and have seen my liver enzymes fall by 1/2. My overall health and immune system are also noticeably improved. I had visited a Hepatology unit at a local hospital, had many tests and spoke to the Western doctors who all but had me dead in 6 months before I discovered Dr. Zhang and his Chinese Medicine techniques. Dr Zhang has told me I will die WITH Hepatitis C...not of it. I think this will be true for me and my PCP confirms my excellent health despite living with this virus. I reside in Virginia, so it is not necessary to be near NYC to take advantage of his skill with this chronic condition. Dr. Zhang works with people all over the country by phone. Dr. Andrew Weil recommends him for those seeking an alternative treatment.

I bought this book for a buddy who isn't online. Hard working carpenter, family man and a good person in his late 50's Likely picked up hep in the military with a blood transfusion, he'll never know. He's been through the Pegasus treatment, it hadn't worked but had about broken them financially, as well as being very hard on him physically. They wanted him to do it again. His blood work indicated he was actually worse than before he did it. So he asks me to buy another book from about herbs and hep C, and i do, but see this and i bought it for him. Actually fealt moved to buy it for him. He ended up calling Dr. Zhang and going to him. He's well now. This costs a fraction of the Pegasus treatment and wasn't hard on him physically. But i repeat the actual bottom line. His blood work say's he's got it well under control. True story. He asked me to be sure to put it out on the web. He's still something of a luddite. But he's a healthy luddite now.

For what I can tell...it works !

Helpful information. Well written.

Dr. Zhang has an incredibly sensible approach to staying healthy and treating this disease, a disease that is vastly over treated by conventional medicine. It is the first book about Hepatitis C I have ever read that made me feel better about Hep C when I read it, rather than sick to my stomach.

If you are impressed by the fact that this protocol is recommended by Andrew Weil, go read about him some. This protocol may work, but there is no evidence for it. The author presents a book full of statements, unverified case studies, and an unsupported study alleging 75 individuals with no FDA or governmental association for the study. The herbal regimen recommended, using the supplies from the recommended HepaPro corporation costs about [money] per month including discounts, less shipping. After about a year of this, if your Hep C LFTs are normalized, the maintenance regimen is about [money] per month - forever.
