STEPHANIE WARREN DRIMMER writes about biology, technology, and outer space. Her work has appeared in Popular Science, Popular Mechanics, National Geographic Kids magazine, and Scholastic's Super Science and Science World magazines. She is a graduate of New York University's Science, Health and Environmental Reporting Program. She is the go-to at NG Kids for imparting scientific information at a level that is both fun and understandable for a kid audience. Mastermind is her first book.

Unfortunately it was much too difficult for the kids I had in mind. It seemed more applicable to high school students or even adults.

Great book to get you thinking...great for any age 7-70!

My granddaughter loved this book and has kept her busy for hours.

Good book. Lots of interesting facts.

Gift for grands

Very fun book.

the kids loved it

My son loves it! It was a gift for him, so his being happy with it is all that matters to me.
