The Kitchen Companion Page-A-Week Calendar 2017

Synopsis

It's magnetic! Designed to hang on the fridge (but also a great fit for a wall or desktop), THE KITCHEN COMPANION PAGE-A-WEEK® CALENDAR combines no-nonsense organization with charming handlettering and illustrations by artist Sarah Smith. The weekly tear-off grids have lots of space for writing down appointments, reminders, and notes. On the right side of each spread is a perforated market list—jot down what you need throughout the week, and you're ready to go on grocery day. Each page also includes three full-month reference calendars and a clever kitchen tip, like how to make flavored vinegars.Â

I received one of these last year as a gift, and couldn't imagine this year without it on my fridge. It is a wonderful way to review my week and see my appointments written there to remind me. The market list is great as well...always jotting things down to add to my list. I got two other people hooked on these calendars as well.

I bought this last year as a way to keep track of weekly activities. It really helped me get organized. I had been using another one in previous years but it was much bigger, took up too much space. This one is the perfect size. I love the perforated list on the side. I don't use it for 'market' items but I do use it for other lists I need to keep. I asked for it for Christmas and knew my husband had gotten it for me. I couldn't wait to open it so I could start using it to keep track of everything!

I used the 2016 version of the Kitchen Companion and liked it so much I purchased the 2017 one! There is a big magnet on the back that secures it fast to the fridge (no damage from the magnet), it has lovely floral art and allows my family to put our weekly schedule in one place. Tear off grocery lists were useful as well!

I love this calendar! It's absolutely adorable in design and I love getting to rip off a week at a time. The market list on the side is handy for jotting down grocery needs throughout the week and the kitchen tip at the bottom is an extra bonus! No complaints.

Extremely helpful to organize the schedule and shopping for a large family. This is our second year using it.

Great tool to keep you organized.

Small space to write; lines too light to differentiate the separate days. Other than that I love the perforated grocery list & also cute/useful kitchen tips on the end. Great addition to our small fridge door to help keep life more organized.

This is probably the cutest and most useful calendar I've ever purchased. It has heavy duty magnets and looks great on the fridge, but I use it so much it ends up as a desk calendar. I love the perforated market list too.
