Unveiled Mysteries

Synopsis

Unveiled Mysteries describes an encounter with St. Germain, here described as an Ascended Master, virtually a God, and able to manipulate the fabric of reality. A final chapter mentions encounters with entities from Venus, a theme of later UFO cargo-cults of the 1950s. Connoisseurs of this genre will appreciate Unveiled Mysteries. Global Grey editions are fully formatted and always have linked table of contents and cover page. Footnotes and illustrations are included when applicable.

Here is an astounding memoir of King's many visits with St. Germaine. The Ascended Master takes King to hidden places and forgotten cities where we are told of magnificent surroundings and great inventions that seem miraculous. However, what we would deem as miracles, King says, are really natural phenomena not yet understood by our present society. King's memoir is at times stirring and at times tedious. The tedium comes from seemingly endless descriptions of opulence and speeches that tend toward preaching. Yet his liberal use of dashes focuses our attention on the important words of his message in a way that in most cases allows us to be stirred. Within us an understanding of Scripture and perhaps our own experiences arise, and we see a connection. Those interested in spiritual growth may want to read again and again the parts that explain the I AM affirmations and the necessity to lead a God-centered life. The practices explained here are instructive and beneficial enough to be life-changing. And although King describes the treasures that St. Germaine shows him ad nauseum, the real treasure in this book is the guidance to personal perfection. It can awaken in the reader a deep yearning for that perfection and for a relationship with the spiritual.

I am on volume 9 right now. Each of these volumes gives us more insight into what life is all about. I am so thankful that I ran across these books. We are all entitled to a peaceful and harmonious life. You will find out how to get that in these teachings. When I first started reading the books, I would get to a point of not really understanding completely what was being explained but I kept reading because the things I did understand were making sense and helping me. I am so glad that I kept on reading. Each volume makes it clearer and clearer. This "I AM" teaching is life changing. Things in my everyday life have gotten so much easier and I am at peace no matter what is happening. I have learned how to really look at life and deal with it in a positive way. These are NOT your run of the mill positive thinking books. You will learn to tap into the "I AM" power that is available to you. You will learn affirmations and decrees that will help you and your family and friends and our whole wonderful world. If you are looking for answers, just give the first three volumes a try and you will see how easy it is to get the answers you are looking for.

This has been a great read filled with information about relationship to Source God Presence and what is possible in this life when living in that Presence consistently. It was my next step on the path to enlightenment and ascension. It has opened a door that I didn't realize existed. I can't wait to start the next book in the series.

I happened by accident, of finding this book of Master St Germain. After having recent experiences of help from Master St Germain I felt compelled and interested in reading what he said in the book and learning about him. I am so glad I did. Just from reading the first few paragraphs, I felt positive chills, vibrations, and energy. I was so happy to read about how he played apart in our physical world, it made him even more real to me. As I read further, I too began crying, just like some of the other readers who commented. Knowing from past experience whenever I have tears there's usually healing occurring within me. This book helps the individual and helps humanity. It is a "must read".

Guy Warren Ballard (1878-1939) and his wife, Edna Anne Wheeler Ballard were the founders of the "I AM" movement (which was a major influence on Elizabeth Clare Prophet's Church Universal and Triumphant, among others). The Foreword to this 1934 book states, "In this... our beloved Mr. Ballard, under the pen name of GodfrÃ© Ray King, shares with the reader his personal experiences with the Beloved Master Saint Germain, and the Great Truth of 'The Eternal Law of Life.' The Beloved Master explains how these transcendent experiences are attainable to all mankind through Loving Obedience, Purity, and Divine Love to each one's own Great 'God Presence,' the Source of all life." (Pg. xvi) The book states, "Truthfully speaking, there are no such things as miracles; for all is according to Law, and that which seems miraculous to the present concept of humanity is but the result of the application of laws to which mankind's present consciousness is unaccustomed, and so seems strange and unusual." (Pg. 39-40) It asserts, "America has a destiny of great import to the other nations of the earth, and Those who have watched over her for centuries still watch. Through Their protection and Love she shall fulfill that destiny. America! We, the Ascended Host of Light, love and guard you. America! We love you." (Pg. 43) It says, "There is no outer organization of these Perfected Beings. Only by living and expressing this Perfection through self-correction of human weaknesses and full adoration to the Divine Being can an individual draw himself into association with Those working at this HIGH LEVEL of attainment." (Pg. 83) Later, "it is we who really govern the wealth of the world and use it but as a test of the soul strength of the individual. It is always a TRUST---given to those who should be strong enough to use it only constructively; but few, very few, really pass that test under the temptation existing in the world at large today. If we choose we can raise the humblest of God's children who have sufficient preparation into wealth, power, and prominence, if by so doing help can be given to many others through such accomplishment." (Pg. 90) It asserts, "Many of the Brothers understand that every twenty-five hundred years the Karumas release a greatly increased outpouring of Cosmic Love, Wisdom, and Energy. This Blazing Light and Transcendent radiance flooding the earth and its inhabitants, interpenetrating all, is a TREMENDOUS LIFTING PROCESS and gives a forward impulse to the growth of the entire earth and well as its humanity." (Pg. 252) The writings of Guy Ballard are not well known today, but the "I AM" movement still continues, and his books are still of interest to those studying "Ascended Master" teachings.

Good book. I read it many years ago and wanted to read it again.
