Synopsis

#1 INTERNATIONAL BEST SELLER 2016 READERS' FAVORITE AWARD WINNER MILITARY FICTION 2016 NEW APPLE ROMANCE SELECTION for Excellence in Publishing 2016 IAN BOOK OF THE YEAR Finalist 2016 TRR Readers' Choice Award Finalist Luke Bryant and Kelly Callahan met on the beach at Dragonfly Pointe when they were only kids. And ever since thirteen-year old Luke saved six-year old Kelly from drowning, they've felt an undeniable connection. But Luke has a tarnished past, and despite his attraction to Kelly when they're growing up, he just doesn't think he's good enough for her. When Luke comes home on leave from the Air Force, and attends the Magical Wedding of Kelly's sister Kate (Romance Reviews Readers' Choice Award WINNER-That Unforgettable Kiss), Luke and Kelly finally share an enchanting night of passion. They simply can't help themselves--they've loved each other nearly their entire lives. College student Kelly has everything going for her--she's not only beautiful, but intelligent too. So when Luke eventually returns home from Iraq as a disheartened wounded warrior, even though he appears to want nothing to do with her, she refuses to give up on him. It's not about his looks, or his past--it's all about the connection they've shared since they were kids. Fate has always meant for them to be together--she's sure of it. But will that past night of enchantment, be strong enough magic, for a military hero to finally surrender his heart to the woman he loves? Two Hearts Surrendered was included in the #1 Bestselling Magical Weddings. This story Ranked #6 In Military Romance!

Customer Reviews

This book tells the story of two people finding their way to what they really want despite heart-wrenching trauma. At one point I wondered if they were going to make it, then things took a turn when I least expected. The whole story was about genuine love and how it finds its way through challenges and obstacles. I finished the book glad that I'd read it and glad for the healing power of love.

The story of Luke and Kelly slowly builds into an engaging love story. Although there is a difference of six or seven years between them, Luke goes off to fight the war in Iraq and ends up with burns over 50 percent of his body, the loss of a leg, as well as his best friend. Luke personally struggles when he returns from Iraq and endures a challenging rehabilitative process. Kelly desperately wants to be with him, but her love is spurned unless Luke overcomes the mental and physical obstacles of rehabilitation. This is a beautiful and powerful story that captured my attention and made me yearn for more! I loved it!

A beautiful love story, with wonderful characters. Well written, emotional story.

Love these characters, this series!

Great story! A Very quick read. I Thoroughly enjoyed it! Definitely recommend this book. Would read more by this author.

Even though Kelly and Luke have been in love with each other since they were kids, Luke has been afraid to admit it. With his tarnished past filled with violence and abuse, he's never really felt like he's measured up. As an air force pilot, who's developed a strong intuition, Luke finally decides to reveal his feelings for Kelly before he returns overseas. But when he comes home as a wounded warrior, his insecurities have returned, and he thinks the best thing he can do for Kelly is to let her go. This was an intense and emotional, but romantic read, that appeared to be very well-researched. The story had just the perfect amount of information about a severely injured wounded warrior, without overloading the reader with too many graphic details. This author is a delightful storyteller who has a knack for injecting humor in just the right places, as well as transforming the most negative of circumstances into the positive. This novella about a wounded warrior pilot, who's afraid to take back his life, was excellent. I can certainly understand how this author has won her awards. I can't wait to read the next story in the series.

So good!

Luke Bryant is an airforce pilot with severe injuries, who's suffering from PTSD. Kelly Callahan promised herself to Luke before he returned overseas and was severely injured in Iraq. When Luke finally returns home, he refuses to have anything to do with Kelly. Even though Kelly is heartbroken, she refuses to give up on him. Ever since Luke saved her from drowning as a child, she knows that fate has always meant for them to be together. Will Luke finally be able to accept his injuries and move on with his life? Two Hearts Surrendered is a beautifully written, unique story, about a wounded warrior who's finding it difficult to move forward because of his injuries. The love scenes were sensual, but tasteful. It's one of the best military romances I've ever read and I highly recommend it!
