Founded in 1947, Hal Leonard Corporation has become the worlds largest print music publisher, representing some of the greatest songwriters and artists of all time. We are proud to publish titles of interest to all musicians as well as music lovers, from songbooks and instructional titles to artist biographies and instrument price guides to books about the music industry and all the performing arts.

Definitely easier than I was expecting, but glad I have something not so complicated to help me get back into playing because it has been years since I have played.

A simplified piano book that has great sounding songs! Demons and Say Something are at about a beginning level 2a (Faber) and the others are slightly more difficult. Great book!

We had the pianist at our church play Counting Stars (our song). It was absolutely wonderful.

It is a very simple and easy book, as stated in description, if you have any experience playing the piano. However, since it is easy playing, you can feel accomplished without much practice.

My daughter was ecstatic when she got this book. It has some of her favorite songs and she's been able to play them for her piano class at school as well as her private piano teacher. They were easy for her to pick up and just play.

Bought this for my son who is just learning to play and sing at the same time. It was the perfect book, all the songs he loves at a great level for leaning to do both at once.

GREAT! I have been playing for over a decade and I LOVE this book! Not too hard, not too simple, perfect!

I'm a piano teacher and I buy it for my students. The songs are easy to play and the arrangements are very nice. My students love it!
