Customer Reviews

This is a very reasonably priced intro to autoharp book with history, instructions, lesson, folk songs, and how to take care of your autoharp. All for under ten bucks. I am an absolute beginner. Bonnie's instructions are clear and easy to follow. Most of the songs included are old folk or gospel tunes. Melody lines are included, along with chords and strumming instructions. I have looked at several books and this one is the most packed for the least amount of money. Yeah, yeah, black and white 70s photos but who cares? If you want to learn autoharp and only want one book, this is the one.

GREAT Book, but it was written for an accompanying CD! The $10.04 ($11.99) version does not contain the CD! There is a $17.31 ($19.99) version that does contain the writer intended CD. Clever. I now have a copy of each. Click on Bonnie Phipps name to find the book/CD version. Kind of important if you are learning the many strumming techniques.

I understand the book OK from being a long-term musician. I gave it as a gift to beginner. She claims she just doesn't get it.

very easy to follow, and such excellent quality on the book material, I was able to contact Bonnie Phipps and she answered and handled a question I had. Very responsive would recommend in a minute.

very helpful, getting lessons from someone and it is great.

nice for the price

It is a good book, I am glad I have it.

Book informative and easy to understand. I'm glad to have bought the book because of the difficulties trying to obtain it in this country. I look forward to learning how to play this instrument as its rarely heard these days
